25 May 1950

1. The FIAPP is well known as a leftist organization. Many of its officials in various countries are engaged in pro-Soviet activities. The FIAPP has actively participated in the world-wide Soviet-sponsored "peace" campaign.

Attention may be called to the activities of the German affiliate of the FIAPP, the VVN (Association of Persecutees of the Nazi Regime) whose membership contains many resistance experts who are reportedly engaged in organizing clandestine activities.

2. Source evidently does not understand the chain of command in the USSR. It is extremely improbable that front organizations in the West would be directly subordinated to military command in the USSR. It is, of course, theoretically possible that they could, in certain cases, report to the counter-intelligence section of the Soviet Army but this section is, in fact, subordinate to the MGB. However the theory that "federations", "internationals" and "affiliated" organizations are being incorporated into the Soviet military apparatus seems mere conjecture.

3. Some of the information concerning [REDACTED] has been confirmed by other sources and is possibly true. It is worth noting that [REDACTED] allegedly a CP member, was promoted this year to the rank of Brigadier in the [REDACTED]

4. The assertions concerning "a new phase of Communist world revolution" are absurd and must be regarded as a figment of source's imagination. On the whole, the report presents a picture too distorted to merit serious attention.
